

Ann Platter

June 17, 1934 - August 23, 2023

Ann Blaul Platter

Age 89, of Bloomington, passed away peacefully at her home in Friendship Village on August 23. She joined her husband Ben P. Platter, son Ted, and daughter Jennifer in heaven. She graduated from Edina High School 1952, and then Iowa State University with a Bachelor of Science degree. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, Edina Country Club and Christ Presbyterian Church. Ann is survived by her daughter Elizabeth (Jeff) Ling of Manassas, VA; son, Benjamin B. (Rochelle) of Loveland, CO; 11 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren, and her twin sister Carolyn (Jim) Cardle. Ann enjoyed knitting, needlepoint, and bridge. Family meant everything to her, and she cherished the time she spent with each one alone or all together. However, the most important thing in her life was her faith in Jesus Christ. A private family graveside service took place this week at Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis, MN. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred "In memory of Ann Platter" designated to the Ted Platter Memorial Scholarship. Please make checks payable to Oral Roberts University and mail to: 7777 South Lewis Ave., Tulsa, OK 74171.

This was meaningful to read. Special lady. We care about you Ben and are praying for you and all those impacted by your mom's life and passing. May the God of all comfort and healing counsel minister to you as you grieve and as you manage all there is to take care of with these circumstances. Much love from the Stern family
