“ My deepest and sincere condolences to Ann Rafshol's Family. My prayers are with her loved ones and her dear brother Steve of whom she was very proud. Ann was a very dear and good friend. We met at U.S. Customs Service when she worked in El Paso, Texas, and after she moved from El Paso we maintained our friendship long distance.

During the last few months Ann was in my heart and mind (more so than ever), and I would call but no answer. Then a few days ago, I entered her name on the internet to possibly find a new phone number; instead what came up on the screen was her obituary announcement...how sad! May I say, it is of great comfort to remember that about two years ago, Ann joyfully shared with me that she had renewed her walk with our Lord Jesus Christ. Praise God!

With heartfelt sympathy, Victoria (Vickie) & husband Ruben P. Martinez
