“ Ann was such a sweet soul, and loved to visit, make you coffee, and serve her famous breakfast cookies. She was a dear friend to my mother Lillian, who passed earlier this year. I remember growing up with this special family, and coming for lunch of Norwegian pancakes! Yummy and so perfectly made in her pan.

She loved her children and grandchildren, and was very proud of them. When Erv was alive we had lots of coffee chats when I'd come home for a visit. They were both special neighbors willing to help, and good friends. I will miss her a lot, but I know she was so tired, and ready to go to Heaven.

Time marches on, and we must all endure sadness when we lose our loved ones. But there was no sweeter, lovely lady who was a very good person.

Love, any my sympathies to the family, especially Jane, Arne, Aaron and Gary who I have very fond childhood memories in SE growing up.

“ Aaron...

I'm so sorry that I could not make it to your mother's memorial service. Ann was one of the warmest, most welcoming people I have ever known. My memories of visiting your home are filled with Ann's smile and genuinely caring questions about my family. If Erv was around, then there was also quite a bit of laughter.

I am so sorry for your loss.
