Seems time just keeps ticking away..not a day goes by without you crossing my mind. So many memories pop up here and there, I stop to remember them and they make my heart smile. but still tears do fall.. I miss you Mom Most of all....

I'm so sorry I didn't see this until now. Anna and I worked together at Honeywell, and lived near her. We used to take walks together after work for a while, and I bought a nice living room couch and chairs from her. Somewhere I lost contact with her, but she had been in my thoughts often over the years. I moved away in 2001, but remember her fondly. Sorry for your loss.

“ Mom well today is here the day of one year without you. It's been a rough road but in some areas smooth and calm I look on those days as days that you were with me time for reflecting on so many things that you taught me some days were so empty but at night memories would come back I have laughed and I have cried I have broken down and sobbed I have lifted my face to the heavens and know I truly was blessed to have had you as my Mother. Throughout the year we have celebrated all the 1st without you being here. I think Peggy had the hardest one of all her birthday 10 days after you're passing but she's doing okay we're both doing okay all four of us are doing okay your grandsons miss you Mzbuttons misses you Biloxi misses you and Nermal misses you. Life Will go on and in our life we will carry you in our thoughts and our hearts always... For in this life it's never goodbye it's always I will see you later. I love you so much Mom and I want to thank you for the beautiful life you gave me ups and downs troubles and fun we sure made it count. Thank you Father Lord in heaven for my beautiful Mom.. Rest now in Eternal Peace..Amen

“ I am very sad to hear of Auntie Anna Mary passing. She was always full of big hugs and great laughs. I remember old black & white photos of her with her hair up in a cute little cut and always a little bow pinned on the side. (and tennis shoes and pedal pushers!) She was a cutie. Heartfelt condolences to Cindy and Peggy and their families, I will be thinking of you all. -Cherrie

“ This was taken Memorial day weekend. We all laughed so hard that day! She always had a kind word to share, a compliment to pay, and question to ask. She knew how to love, how to listen and how to get herself thrown in Facebook jail! Cindy, Peggy, Jacob and Skyler you all have our deepest sympathies and our love. Embrace this time of sharing and storytelling, let the memories fill your hearts and souls to help you through this process. Love you all...
