“ We loved meeting Anna Mae with mom and enjoyed all our subsequent visits. Her and mom were great friends! So sorry we can't be in town to show our support and share in the joy of her Irish wake.

“ We enjoyed many annual holiday lunches and shows with Annie. We were a party of 7: Annie, Shari, Stella & Teddy, Linda (Shari's Mom), Brenda & Macy (Shari's sister & niece). It didn't matter what children's play or performance we went to, she enjoyed going out for lunch afterwards and spending time with her grandkids and always treated my daughter like one of her own grandkids. Annie was gracious and a real gem. She will be missed!

“ I came to know Annie through the loving eyes of my best friend, her daughter, Laurie. The times my husband and I spent with her she was always kind, insightful, and most of all gracious. She had a great sense of humor. We'll never forget the time our two families celebrated Larry & Laurie's birthdays in Mexico. Our condolences to the family for your loss. Eric and Jerri Miller

“ There will never be another Annie Johnson. A second mother to all who knew any of her children. Believe me she was never afraid to let you know you were wrong. Her finger was over worked flipping the back light on and off. Annie was so proud of her Irish heritage and all of us who were also Irish. The best memory of Annie I have is the Christmas morning she woke up to find the large family turkey which was to be served at noon was eaten. Let me tell you one could hear her screaming all over town. My brother, Craig and friend Bob had to do an emergency run to replace it. My deepest sympathy to all of you and your families. Annie will always be in my prayers. God bless you All. Keith Boelter
