“ Anna was wise beyond words and gave fabulous advice up to the very end. I loved saying the Hail, Mary and the Lord’s Prayer with her, and I will never ever forget that she wore a red sweater—for Life—to my mother’s funeral many years ago. You are missed, Anna LeFebvre. ❤️

*Auntie Anna,
I will never forget my visit to Minneapolis, to your home were I got to meet my uncle Paul. It was a very treasured experience Which I will never forget. Your love and kindness to Paul and myself was an inspiration to experience. I loved our private charismatic time that we spent up north in the cabin by the lake. Love you auntie Anna ,love from Patricia, Steve and family xxx 🌹*
