Anna joins her loving husband, John A. Sellner, beloved son, Jonathan C. Sellner, her parents, and several siblings in Heaven. Her lifelong goal was to get to Heaven, and surely, the gates of Heaven opened wide for her, and the angels rejoiced at her arrival.

“ Dear Dan, Chuck, Kathy, Laura, Carrie, Joanne, Liane, Erin, and Kristin,
Please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of your mother Anna. It is with a heavy heart that I write this. The Sellner Family has always been very special to me and you have affected the course and quality of my life in more ways than you could know. You will see mom again. She has completed her journey and is where she belongs, with John, and Jonathan, and all that have gone before us. You will be in my prayers.

“ We have an entire second family in Minnesota, and our hearts are breaking for you all; Ann welcomed us into her heart and home as her own, and showed us how as one gives love freely and wilfully, one receives it back a hundred times over. A sweeter, gentler, kinder woman we could never likely meet. May her soul be at peace forever.
