“ Dear Carol Ann and family,
Hugs to you as you celebrate in remembrance the life of your dear mother and my dear aunt. Such a kind soul and loved having family spending time together. I was especially touched when she and Uncle Carroll came to a dog show we were at with our Newfoundlands in the Twin Cities - gosh - probably 30 some years ago, to see us and see what it was about. Always so interested in family activities. She made great jams/jellies that she shared with my folks and I got to enjoy, too. And her type-written letters typed on her manual typewriter with the ribbon getting fainter and fainter as it was more difficult to find replacement reels...I have many fond memories. The Miller brothers and sisters sure had some great reunions!
Love, cousin Mary
