“ To All of the Family of Sid,

We so loved Sid and we so love you all. May the Lord's peace be with you and grant you every ounce of what you may be needing even as the funeral is happening right now as we write. Truly our thoughts are with you. Sid loved us, he prayed for us, he cared oh so much.....we will never forget that and that memory is precious. God's abundant blessings to each of you as we celebrate too what Jesus has already prepared for Sid and for us. We'll meet him again someday!

“ My thoughts have been with the whole Baniak family all day today..I stopped at a beautiful little chapel here in St Louis (Carmolite Nuns), and said a prayer for all of you at the time of the Funeral Mass there in St Paul. Thanks for having such a nice photo of Aunt Anne here for us to smile at and remember her with. She was such a dear heart. I remember her coming to my Graduation in Iowa. I will always remember how happy it made me that she was there. Love, Nancy

Uncle Vic and Aunt Anne came to the back of the house to visit me through the window brought me some food from the party. I was very happy to see them and thankful for the food.
