

Anne S. Hall

February 11, 1951 - October 14, 2015

We mourn the passing of Anne S. Hall, wife, mother, and grandmother, on October 14, 2015 at her home after a long illness. A fiercely independent, dynamic and compassionate woman, she inspired and changed the lives of the people around her. She was born February 11, 1951 to Walter Regan and Lucy Browne in St. John, New Brunswick, Canada and grew up in Ottawa, Canada. She was married for 30 years to Ralph F. Hall and they raised four children together. Anne's five grandchildren were her greatest joy in the final years of her life. A lifelong student, she amassed, among other degrees, a Masters in Biochemistry, a Masters in Plant Biology, an MBA and finally a Doctorate in Clinical Psychology. In recent years she was immersed in her work as a psychotherapist. Through her work she became a crusader for the Hmong community. The Hmong held a special place in her heart and she enjoyed learning about their traditions and language and attending the Hmong cultural events. A lover of nature, she spent her free time working in her gardens, bird watching, and capturing flowers in great detail in her watercolor paintings. Her kindness, tenacity, and wit will be deeply missed by those who knew her. Survived by her husband, Ralph; children, Tracy Braun (Elizabeth Adams), Michael Braun, Stephanie Hall (John Koolage) and Diane Hall; grandchildren, Clarissa, Mallory and Juliette Braun-Adams and Zachary and Penelope Koolage-Hall; brother, Walter (Pat) Regan; sister, Sheilagh (Gordon) Hagar and niece, Laura Regan.
