

Anne Marie Ingvoldstad

July 30, 1963 - May 8, 2024

Anne Marie Ingvoldstad died in her sleep on May 8, 2024. She was born to Robert William "Bill" and Sharon Ingvoldstad on July 30, 1963 in Alexandria, Minnesota. Anne graduated from Storden-Jeffers High School in 1981 and from the College of St. Thomas in 1985. She earned a Masters degree in textiles and apparel from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis in 1993. Throughout her career she worked in marketing and retail including Target's corporate office.

Anne was an expert at design and making clothes, quilts, and home décor. She had an artist's eye for design and style. Anne supported animal rescue of all kinds, and supported people in need around the world. She played the flute throughout high school and danced in the Solid Silver danceline at SJHS. She loved to read and loved all things vintage: clothes, houses, movies and art.

Anne is survived by her children, Charles Metz and Alaina Metz, mother Sharon Gravidahl Ingvoldstad, sisters Lynn Ingvoldstad and Jane (Eric) Abraham, nephews Alexander (Charlotte) Thomson, Ryan Abraham and Ethan Abraham; niece Emily Abraham and great-nieces Chloe Thomson and Amelia Thomson and many aunts, uncles and cousins. She is preceded in death by her father Robert William "Bill" Ingvoldstad.

Funeral services will be held on July 5, 2024 at Lutheran Church of the Cross in Niswaa. Visitation at 1:00 p.m. followed by a service at 2:00 p.m.

Tribute Wall

KK

“ I remember Anne had a great sense of style back in high school. So kind and funny also. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. Love and comfort to her family.

Kelli Koob - June 16, 2024 at 08:05 PM

BW

“ Brad Witt lit a candle in memory of Anne Marie Ingvoldstad

Brad Witt - June 16, 2024 at 07:38 PM