“ I met Tony about three and a half years ago. Our neighbors had a tree fall down between our houses during an ice storm in Nov. Tony came to cut it up and get ride of it. He was over to his daughter's house a lot and we talked a lot about everything. Recently he and I prayed together about a few people and he told me is was not ready, he had more fishing to do. Because we were in Arkansas last week, we didn't know Tony went home. Monday night I said to my husband we should hook up his boat and take him fishing..... I guess Tony already was....but in heaven. We will miss him greatly.

Know my kids have an angle up in haven that will watch over them well they are on this earth. You will be missed so very much. We all LOVE YOU A LOT.
