

Anthony Zagar

December 5, 2004

Zagar Anthony J., age 82, died Dec. 2, 2004. Preceded in death by daughter, Teresa; brothers, John and Frank; sisters, Mary and Della. Survived by fiancée, Janice Iverson; sons, Robert (Agata), Bruno (Michlyn); daughter, Maryann (Tom) Wysocki; 5 grandchildren, Teresa, Maria, Angela, Dane and Allisun; brother, Bruno Zagajewski. Private interment Fort Snelling Cemetery. Washburn-McReavy Robbinsdale Chapel 763-537-2333

Tribute Wall

RM

“ Anthony was a pharmacist mate first class; early US Navy Pacific Theater, US Marines, US Navy scout and raider, China, Sino American Cooperative Organization (SACO) with Admiral Miles, Chinese Chief Secret Police Taili, General ChangKai-Sheck, Yangtze River, South China Sea, U.S. Navy "Rice Paddy War" 56 radio stations, eyes and ears of US Navy Fleet and US Air Force, 100 officers, 900 enlisted, 9000 Chinese secret police, bombed railroads and coastal ships, surveyed for possible invasion, 3500 enemy killed, 2 American dead, 3 Americans captured, SACO strategy studied in US war colleges, Great Lakes Naval Base Illinois, Breneton Seattle Puget Sound Washington state, Washington, D.C., Farragut, Idaho, USNG Calcutta, Changtze HQ Unit, Chi-Kiang, Changchow, Shanghai, China. After WWII, Chicago Transit Authority bus driver, Crane and Walworth Plumbing Companies, Loyola University of Chicago, bachelor degree, business administration, member, Knights of Columbus, Saint Joseph, Saint Scholastic parishes, married Helen Gertrude Kurzynowski, four children, Robert, Maryann, Bruno, Teresa.

---

Robert John Zagar PhD MPH - June 26, 2022 at 07:27 AM