“ I can't remember when I didn't know Ardelle. Initially as a neighbor and then as Renee and my babysitter. I was one of her bridesmaids and it was one of highlights of my teen years and as time went on it turned into a friendship. Ardelle was always and will always be someone that I strive to emulate....she is a true example of a good person. The last time I saw her was at my 70th in Minneapolis and she looked fantastic.....I'm so glad we had that time to visit and catch up. I will miss her.
