“ Our neighborhood growing up in Richfield was perfect - we could play ball in the street, ride our bikes anywhere and for years still had woods to play in on 12th Ave. Arleen was the prettiest Mom on the block and you had the huge weeping willow tree in your backyard to hide under as well as the attached breezeway! Pretty swanky! We were fortunate to grow up with parents who gave us love and freedom to be kids.

I was saddened to learn of Arleen's passing, but wondered often how she was doing after Warren's death. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family as you heal the empty space with happy memories and love from family and friends. Arleen modeled a full life well-lived.
