“ I visited Armin a couple times down in the Cities after I met him in Swanville at his Sister-in-law, Betty Vanselow's birthday party. I was just amazed at his bird carvings and paintings that he had done and were in his apartment. Armin was a wonderful gentleman and I send my condolences to all who loved him. If someone knows what happened to his carvings, etc. , I would love to buy some of his creations. John Loxterkamp, Swanville, MN.
