

Arthur Clarinet" Wolf

October 25, 2009

Age 96, of Uptown Minneapolis (Kenwood Isles) Born June 20, 1913, Chicago, IL, died October 18, 2009. Survived by loving wife, LuAnn; step-daughter, Laurie (Budd) Sieger; grandchildren, Kristine and Jared, Woodbury, MN. His first wife Amy died in 1997. Also survived by many nieces and nephews; step-brothers and sisters, cousins, and many friends. Arthur received his BA and MA in Music Education from Northwestern University, Evanston, IL in 1936. He taught for 41 years in Colfax, WI, Crete-Monet, Chrisman, IL and Long Island, NY. Graduate studies at Oberlin Conservatory, Manhattan School of Music, Hofstra University and Univ. of Wisconsin at Stevens Point. He was a member of the Musicians Union for 73 years in Chicago, Long Island and the Twin Cities - playing with Moonlight Serenaders, Golden Tones, Richfield American Concert, Normandale and Calhoun Comm. bands. HAUMC Sanctuary choir, Minn. Orchestra WAMSO, NEA. Private woodwind lessons. Clarinet Solos. Member of PHI MU ALPHA-IOTA, NUMBALUMS, Lutkin Society in Chicago. He enjoyed going to the Y, gardening, ping pong and bridge. Special thanks to the Redeemer Care Center staff for their care & concern. Funeral service 11 AM Saturday, October 31 at Hennepin Avenue United Methodist Church, 511 Groveland Ave., Minneapolis, with visitation 1 hour prior to service. Interment Lakewood Cemetery. Memorials preferred to Hennepin Ave. United Methodist Church Music Fund. Washburn-McReavy Davies Chapel 612-377-2203