

Audrae Diestler

December 9, 2013

Diestler, Audrae Died Dec. 9 in her Eden Prairie home at age 91. Audrae grew up in Huron, SD and moved to Minneapolis where she met her husband Martin Diestler. She worked at Marquette Bank for many years and was hostess at her mother's restaurant, Loretta's Tea Room. Preceded in death by husband Martin, mother Loretta Wright, brother Jack Wright and sister Lanae Fisher. Audrae and Mart built their family home in Eden Prairie where Audrae lived for 59 years. She loved old movies, her dogs, and French designers. She volunteered over 7,500 hours at Fairview Southdale. Audrae was a prototypical matriarch who had a profound influence on her extended family, establishing many traditions that are still in place 3 generations later. She was greatly loved, respected and will be missed by family and friends: Terri & John Hill, Bobbi & Jerry Stahl, Lise & Slater Crosby, Mary & Josh Stahl, Amanda & Jesse Stahl, Lindsay Stahl, Gail & Craig Wright, Charlynn Robertson & Rene Escobar, Alicia & Jake Moser. A special thank you to caregivers Vickie Willson, Katherine Sando, and Baywood Home Care. A private service was held Saturday. Audrae is survived by her nephews, Craig Wright of Chaska, Jerry Stahl of Eden Prairie, and an awesome hat collection.
