March 21, 1925 - September 30, 2020

Anderson, Audrey Allison (Eckland) passed away peacefully surrounded by her family and loving caregivers on September 30, 2020 at the age of 95. Audrey was preceded in death by her husband, Paul R. Anderson, parents, Kenneth and Alphild Eckland; granddaughter, Tara. She will deeply missed by son, Steve (Sandy) Anderson; daughter, Debbie (Todd) Siebell. Audrey was a champion for her grandchildren, Jeff (Cindy), Kelly (Aaron), Josh (Michael) and Allie. She also was blessed with 5 great-grandchildren and a host of wonderfully loyal friends. Audrey had a strong faith in Christ who gave her strength always and especially in more recent days as she demonstrated and shared with family her testimony of her love for the Lord and His presence in her life. She practiced her Christian faith and servant leadership in all she was involved in; including her church, RealLife Cooperative, and countless charities and organizations. Her strong and fierce independence kept her active and stimulated in life with music, education and travel. Special thanks to N.C. Little Memorial Hospice, and the North Memorial Hospice Team in sharing compassionate and loving care to our mom with her end of life journey. Memorials preferred to Elim Lutheran Church Foundation or N.C. Little Memorial Hospice Edina. Private services will be held due to Covid-19 restrictions. Burial at Crystal Lake Cemetery.
