“ Our love and prayers are with you, Roger, and all your family. How we wish we could be with you tonight and tomorrow but it is not possible.

I am overwhelmed with sadness and memories. We were so blessed to have such wonderful next door neighbors during your too few years in Duluth, to have had a good visit just a couple of months ago --and everything in between.

Who but Audrey would have welcomed our five year old Karen's tap at her door, asking if she had any of Roger's handkerchiefs that she could iron ---and then let her DO it? All three of our girls were the recipients of her love and patience, from giving them their first board game (used TODAY by our great grandson--yes, the original) and playing it with them. And then following them through to graduations, weddings, etc.

She taught us everything we know about Bridge. She went on to learn more; we did not, but we still enjoy it.

Audrey was a wonderful cook. I still use recipes I got from her. In her Christmas note she mentioned her favorite chocolate snowballs. They became our family's favorite, too!

So many memories-- her deep faith, love of family, pride in her grandchildren--- a friend that we thank God for. God bless you all--

*With our deep, deep sympathy and love,
