

Audrey R. Rinde

September 17, 2012

Rinde, Audrey Ruth left us for her long awaited walk with Jesus on Sept. 17, 2012 in her 90th year. She was born on July 29, 1922 at Badger, MN to Helmer and Anna Rinde. She graduated from Badger High School and had two years at Interstate Business College in Fargo, ND. The college sent her to NDSU where she worked as secretary to the Dean of Agriculture and subsequently as administrative assistant to the President. Her tenure at NDSU lasted 25 years. In 1968 she accepted a position as assistant to the Director General of the International Institute of Tropical Agriculture in Nigeria, West Africa where she spent 10 happy and exciting years and another 9 years at Loonam Computer Terminals. She was preceded in death by her parents; 3 brothers, Donald, Herman and Leonard; 3 nephews, Steven, Charles and Ryan; sister-in-law, Shirley Rinde; brother-in-law, Lowell Turner. Survived by 3 sisters, Eleanor (Duane) Nelson, Helena Turner and Elizabeth (Julian) Trangsrud; and her beloved nephews and nieces, and all the grands who brought joy unending, and friends throughout the world that are too numerous to count. She loved her Lord and worshiped Him wherever she was located. A celebration of Audrey's life will be Saturday, Sept. 29th at 11:00 AM with visitation one hour prior at Woodlake Lutheran Church Chapel, 7525 Oliver Ave S., Richfield, MN. Memorials may be sent to the Church, Park Nicollet Methodist Hospital Hospice or the donor's choice. Private interment at a later date. www.Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
