

Avis Ruth Laas

September 25, 2016

Laas, Avis Ruth Daughter of Ruth Carlson and Victor Olson was born on February 24, 1941 in Minneapolis and went to be with her Lord and Savior on Sunday September 25, 2016 at the age of 75. Avis grew up in Minneapolis, married Curt Ogard right out of high school, and had 3 children: Curtis Jr., Troy, and David. She later married LeRoy Laas. Avis was many things in life, artist, college graduate, parole officer, but mainly she was a children's counselor. Working at Fairview hospitals chemical dependency program, she always emphasized helping people. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends. She looked forward to and enjoyed the time spent with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved life and never complained. Survivors include son Troy Ogard; granddaughter Nikita Ogard; daughter-in-law Julie Njoku (David Ogard); granddaughters Alicia Ogard, Christina Ogard, and Heather Burlison of TX; two great-grandchildren Raegan and Nolan; sister-in-law Carol (Gary) Olson of Lockhart, TX; brother David (Lois) Olson of Yankton SD; as well as many cousins, nephews and nieces. Preceded in death by parents, brother Gary, and sons Curtis Jr. and David Ogard. In lieu of flowers, memorial to Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Memorial service will be held at Washburn-McReavy Nokomis Park Chapel on Friday, October 14, 2016 with a one hour visitation starting at 1 pm, the service at 2 pm, and reception to follow. “ All my sympathy on the passing of avis. She was bright and chipper and always ready to pray for any cause. I treasure the short time that I was able to be in her presence. Paul Hamer
