

Barbara Ann Adams

March 11, 1939 - June 21, 2024

Adams, Barbara A. Age 85, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, passed away June 21, surrounded by her children. Preceded in death by her loving Husband, Winston Adams, mother, Harriet Knutsen and father, Rolf Knutsen. Survived by children, Shawn (Dan) Moloczij and Nicolle (Bill) Woods and grandchildren Nicholas (Dominique) Moloczij, Sydney, Billy and Jack Woods and great granddaughter, River Moloczij. Barb was loved and survived by her siblings, Sunny Woodward, Carolyn (Alan) Will and Tom (Sherri) Knutsen and many nephews and nieces. Barbara was born 3/11/1939 and grew up in South Minneapolis and married her husband, Winston, who loved her from the minute he laid eyes on her. They married June 2, 1962 and loved each other until Win's passing in December, 2020. Barbara Adams was the CFO of their family-owned business, Adams Nut and Bolt, from 1979-1999. She will fondly be remembered as someone who made a difference in so many lives.

Employees adored her and knew she always took care of them. A resident of Shorewood, MN and La Quinta, CA, she enjoyed her retirement spending time with her children and grandchildren on Lake Minnetonka during the summer months and during the wintertime visits in La Quinta, CA. She would excitedly wait and plan for the family to visit. Barbara was diagnosed with Dementia and has suffered from this terrible disease for the last several years. Special thanks to the staff in the Memory Care Unit at Haven Homes, Maple Plain, who took care of her for 26 months. Funeral Service 11:30 a.m. on June 25, with Visitation beginning at 10:30 a.m. at Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel,

5000 West 50th Hwy 100. A reception will follow the service. Interment following reception at Resurrection Catholic Cemetery, Mendota Heights, MN, where she will be buried next to her husband to rest in peace for eternity. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations in Barb's name to the Alzheimer's Association at: alz.com
