“ She and my mother always had such good times with each other. They were always laughing. I remember after Grandpa Dunn's funeral we went back to the Twin Cities. We were sitting in your moms kitchen, Milo and Donna were there, mom and myself, some of Lauren kids, and Barb and Milo were telling stories. And you know how well Milo could tell a story. Anyway, mom and Barbara were laughing so hard tears were in their eyes. What a great memory.

“ I will always remember the last visit, when Florence and I came to see you and you recognized her immediately. And, as always, you eventually said, "We need to do something with your hair!" I will always have warm memories of visiting your house and, as others have commented, I will remember your laugh.

“ Our prayers and thoughts are with you in this time of both sorrow and relief. It's never easy to loose a parent but knowing they have been released from their pain and no longer being trapped in the past but able to be free again is a comfort.

“ Where ever my Dad (Frank) was in the world, he always called you on your birthday. He would tell stories of growing up with you as his big sister. My sister has a picture of you and our dad when he was two. The two of you are playing on the front steps at the farm. Even then you two were laughing. Your infectious laugh. You were loved and will be missed. There were many trips to your house over the years. Thank you for being the caring, fun, and loving Aunt.
