“ I remember working late at Founders Ridge and I would get a pendent call. It would be Barbara. The weather was bad and she was worried about me driving home. She would ask me if I would like to sleep on her sofa? It was my job to tend to her needs, but she acted more like my mother. I didn't have any grandchildren to show off, but she did want to help put my little rabbit through Agility School! Barbara, I miss you!
