

Ms. Barbara Ann Hope

September 17, 1926 - July 25, 2018

Barbara A Hope, born Sept. 17, 1926 passed away Wed. July 25 at the age of 91. Preceded in death by parents Harold Sr. and Gertrude (Hukee) Hope, brothers Harold Jr and Robert Hope, sister Marilyn (Hope) Lieb. Survived by sister Doris (Hope) Beyer/Meyer, many nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephew, and great-great nieces and nephews. Barb attended Kenyon HS in Kenyon, MN and was a graduate of MN State University-Mankato. She enjoyed a long teaching career in Amiret MN, Waseca MN, and Minneapolis MN-the highlight of which was the two years she spent teaching for the US Army in Nuernburg, Germany after World War II. Between school terms she drove her Volkswagen "Bug" to Norway to visit relatives in Bergen and at Leikanger on the Sogne Fjord. She enjoyed traveling all over the world, bird watching, hiking, cross country skiing, biking, and reading of all types. Her church and its activities were an important part of her life. Her family and friends enjoyed her unique sense of humor, great stories, and especially her eccentric gift giving style. Memorial service to be held 11am Friday, Aug 17th at Central Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, visitation 1 hour prior to service. In lieu of flowers memorials preferred to Animal Humane Society of Golden Valley.
