“ I was named after my Aunt Barb. She was a stewardess for American Airlines when the first Barbie dolls came out. I got one dressed in a stewardess outfit that looked just like hers and thought it was so cool that it was named the same as us. When we lived in Texas she took us on board a plane and I got wings and a certificate. Then when she married Ken that was just the coolest thing ever. I had my own live Barbie and Ken! I will miss them both.
Luv Always,
