“ So thankful to our Father that Barb has reached her rest after such a long, painful struggle! May God lift you, her family, up and hold you tightly in His arms, giving you peace, courage and strength to face the days, weeks, years ahead without your precious wife and mother. You have been so faithful helping and loving her throughout this difficult journey. Peace in Christ, Bonnie Burrow

“ A bowl of popcorn brought us together! Your morning post it notes were like a flock of yellow butterflys on the counter. I guess I have to sheetrock the garage this summer.
