me so much unconditional love and support. Thank you for always being there for me, even in the most difficult times, you were the first person I could go to for anything. Thank you for all of the fun times and happy memories you have given me and our family. I love you so much Barbie. I love you more than anything in this world and I miss you so much already. Say hi to Papa and Grandma for us. 🙏

From the moment Miss Lexi arrived , the now Auntie Barb became a legend ! Her absolute joy for her niece was cemented in her heart . There was nothing she wouldn't do for her. Their bond was unbreakable . From shopping , as I ran into both a few times , cart filled with new clothes for school . One of the best cooks , bar makers , I've ever met that would make and deliver her famous bars was a constant . My sons grooms diner , my sisters graduation parties for her three . I made myself the official taster on each pan , when delivered to the Salon ! Anyone that was lucky enough to get those bars , packed a few extra in their purses ! Lexi loved being with Auntie Barb and learning how to cook , garden , and spend the most precious of time with her . Her shadow ❤️ I'm so grateful I had the fortunate opportunity to have known Barb for many years and always met with a mischievous smile when talking about her besties up North . To Janet who stopped by to give me the sad news , was an enormous shock and so hard to see her so shattered . The bond these sisters was everything . Barb , you are an unbearable loss to your family and friends ! Your heart held so much love for all of us . Thank you for your friendship , your spicy personality, the Queen of recipes as you were the very best at whatever tried and always mastered ! Rest easy friend ❤️

“ This is Dave and Lori. Shocked to hear of barb passing. She can get uncle Bud and Aunt Carol and Jim and get a card game going. I remember how Barb was always smiling and a happy girl. We send our sympathy to Janet and Eugene and your families, she will really be missed. Love you guys.
