“ Dear Russ and Rich - I'm so sorry to learn that your mom passed away recently. She was a smart and compassionate woman - and I always enjoyed talking with her, especially about education! You may remember the days when we all lived on Iowa Street and you guys were occasionally babysitters for our three boys. They loved to have you come over because you would teach them about wrestling - and you often brought candy! We appreciated your whole family and were glad you were neighbors. God bless you and your families as you say goodbye to Mom and Grandma, and find comfort in knowing that she is with the Lord - which is a very good place to be. Love to you all. Carole Spickelmier
