“ Goodbye Mom, only for now, I will see you again when I get to Heaven, where I know you most definitely are, up there with God, and all of his heavenly angels!!! There will always be a light that burns bright in my heart for you. You were my ROCK, always there for me, through thick and thin. I will always feel your loving presence around me. You touched, and brought so many lives together with your love, generosity and kindness. I know you just got both of your eyes done so that you could see this beautiful world around you alot better, and without your glasses, but now since God has taken you from us, I will go through the rest of my life, here on Earth, in comfort, knowing that you will now be blessed, and able to see firsthand with your newborn eyes, all of God's beautiful and glorious kingdom and what it has to offer. Love you Mom, and will see you soon....

Your Forever Loving Son,

Among The Yesterdays

How can I say, the things I should have told you yesterday, a word and then a touch?

That could have changed so much, but time moves fast, were never more than one step from the past, I stop to blink an eye, a moment pass me by.

And now the time has gone, and time is never wrong, there so much left to say, but it's lost, among the yesterdays.

Now here we are, here we are, I never realized we come so very far, I guess we lost our way, among the yesterdays.

And now the time has gone, and time is never wrong, there so much left to say, but it's lost, among the yesterdays....

Among the yesterdays....I guess we lost our way, among the yesterdays.

Your Forever Loving Son,
