“ To Barbara's family,
Barb was one of those few people who just sparkles in every way. Everyone who knew Barb was aware that she was brilliant, lovely, personable and caring. She was “gifted and talented” before we knew the term. Despite her intellectual gifts, Barb was a humble person with a great sense of humor. She and I roomed together in Kittlesby Hall after we returned from our respective St. Olaf terms abroad in 1968. What a delight it was to get to know her better as her roommate. Her family and friends have suffered a terrible loss but all who knew her will affirm that Heaven has just welcomed a most special soul.
Sincerely,
Linda Virden

“ Pearl, Jeff, and Mary,
There are no words to express my sadness for your loss. I worked with Barb at James Econn and Company and idolized her. She was a beautiful person in every way and admired by many including me. Thank you for taking care of her, fruit does not fall far from the tree.
