

Barry Thomas Goldberg

November 20, 1950 - September 28, 2024

Goldberg, Barry Thomas

Age 73 of Minneapolis died suddenly Saturday, September 28. Preceded in death by Dolores Goldberg, mother; Harry Goldberg, father;

Mike Goldberg Flannigan, brother. Survived by life-partner Joan Boeser and many, many loving family and friends. Barry was a unique man who was 101% artist from the day he was born until the day he passed. He enjoyed successes from hit compositions like "Twenty Years Ago in Speedy's Kitchen" in his teens to recent placements of his music in current Hollywood movies like "The Watchers", and he recorded several critically acclaimed albums along the way. He loved his family and friends especially his life-partner Joanie.

He cared deeply about the world and animals. He was absolutely loved by countless friends throughout his life. He was a masterful performer, hysterically funny, a fine actor, and, above all else, a peerless, matchless songwriter.

Private memorial with family will be held at later date.

In lieu of flowers memorials preferred to Golden Valley Humane Society in memory of Barry Thomas Goldberg.

Tribute Wall

“ We lived on the same block of 4th Ave in Bloomington. Oh how I loved his music. He was a really neat guy.

Joy Nielsen Westover - August 23, 2025 at 04:49 PM