“Beatrice G. Wilson, was a great woman she was a fun, loving and caring person. She was also my second mom. She is the kind of mother that every child will ever want to have as their mother, surprisingly enough, she was killed my her metholly challenge son for an unknow reason. That same night her grandson Peter was also kill by his uncle the same man. Peter was a great young man he is very respectful to me and funny. When Peter was alive, we always hank out together with our cousin Christine when they aren't in school and when I'm not working we played together, and some time go for a walk. What we love doing the most is driving around town crusing down the free-way with no destination in mind we will just listerning to loud music talked crazy say funny stuff to each other and laugh out loud. We always end our day by going to the pizza shop before I drop them off. even the day that Peter and aunt B. passed Peter was with me that whole afternoon, he and Christine call me as user to come get them. I when for them we go for a ride, get some pizza later that day we when to my Apt. to say hello to my son William Jr. after few hours of talking and eating, Peter said please take us home I have to do my home-work I said ok I talk them that night little that I know it was last time that I will ever see him alive or talk to him again. About 10 hours later I got the news that I don't want to (take in) or believe up to now. Peter wasn't just a family member to me I also consider him as a son and a best friend Ma. B. and Lil. P. In my heart is where your will always be I misses you guys alot every day may your soul rest in perfect peace. William S.
