

Becky Henderson

July 17, 1949 - March 8, 2025

Becky Henderson, born on July 17, 1949, in Portland, Oregon, passed away on March 8, 2025, with her children by her side, leaving behind a legacy of love and creativity. She married the love of her life, Rick Henderson, in a beautiful ceremony in Hawaii, and together they built a life filled with joy and adventure.

The couple initially resided in Bend, Oregon, before moving to Owatonna, Minnesota, where they created a beautiful home and raised their three children. Becky was a devoted mother who embraced her role wholeheartedly. She was actively involved in all her children's school and extracurricular activities, volunteering endlessly and ensuring that they had rich, fulfilling experiences. Becky loved the arts and her passion for painting and design showed in every aspect of her life. The house was always beautiful. Every holiday and party thrown was decorated perfectly! And her fashion was always on point. She always looked adorable.

After their children had all moved out, Becky and Rick split their time between Edina and Owatonna. They loved exploring the city together, enjoying farmers markets, happy hours, and spending quality time with their kids.

Becky kept us laughing and smiling until the end. She will be remembered for her warm spirit, dedication to her family, and her artistic talents. She touched the lives of many and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
