“ I have been looking for Becky for quite awhile. I am not even sure if the family will get this, but I know of no other way to reach someone in the family. My name was Debbie Ehresmann when Becky and I had attended Portland Jr. High together. We knew each other but didn't hang out together that much in school. In my senior year I was in the work study program so I didn't see many people at all. To my surprise Becky had attended WSU along with myself in 72 and we lived on the same floor. There was about 9 of us that formed a strong relationship in school and afterward some of us maintained a connection, especially the ones that lived closest to each other. With age we started relationships. marriage and then children. One of our friends had lived in northern Wisconsin, one year 3 families decided to take a vacation and visit Cheryl's family with two boys. Becky, Julie, and myself hit the road that took us to get them in the first day. we stayed for a long weekend. Julie had 2 son's, I had two sons, and Becky had 2 girls. All the kids were around the same age between 3 and 1 years old. It was a fabulous time. That turned out to be the last time we got together. I heard Rick had died in an accident returning home from a cabin in Little Falls? Again, my connection did not maintain. I was hoping to catch her at some class reunion, but didn't see her at them. Any way would love to hear from the girls and maybe get a chance to do a visit on my way up to St. Cloud area where my birth family had moved to after leaving Bloomington in the 80's. I give my email address I look into it often. Hope this finds someone. Best to all. kingdebra@ymail.com

“ The loss of a loved one is always a difficult time. I would like to give my condolences to the family. May memories of her always live in your hearts. While our loved ones 'sleep' in death, find comfort in the words of Revelation chapter twenty-one verse four where it says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This promise is concerning future conditions on the earth since heaven does not experience such things as death or pain. God's original purpose for mankind was to live in a Paradise on earth forever. "He has not changed" according to Malachi chapter three verse six. Remember these comforting words as you await the resurrection of your beloved, Becky.
