“ Gahhh, every once in a while I miss you so much. Today is one of them. Out of the blue, something reminds me of you & my heart just aches for you. I was thinking about your slumber parties (how we would be planning them this time if the year) & how much fun we always had. Remember when your dad sang Hello Dolly with me & you on the player piano? I never imagined I'd be alone in life without you. I'll never find another you. I wish you were here. We were supposed to go gray together! I love you so much.

“ Hi Becky
Its been 11 years, you are MISSED so much, Ashley graduated from the U of M this year going on for her masters, works in the health field, will be great as she has a tender heart like you, Ash took such good care of Grandpa when he had open heart surgery
Matt has grown into a fine young man, graduated college, has a great job. he is working in Onamia. he fishes and hunts every chance he can, has a fish house that he takes to Millelacs. You would be so proud of Ash and Matt, They have grown into fine individuals
I love you and miss you so much

“ It's that time of the year again that thoughts of you consume me. Fall is in full force. The 8th and the 20th were tough days for me. On the 8th I took the kids shopping at the mall for a little "me and you time" (they didn't know that was the reason). Remembering all of the great times we had riding the Metro bus from 53rd & University to Northtown...Spencers, the food court. Those were the days. I would have gotten a birthday card in the mail from you today or tomorrow, always just a few days early...you telling me all about the kids and how much you missed me possibly a picture inclosed. I would cry and call you right away. I sure miss those letters and cards...the sound of your voice is still fresh in my mind, I hope that never leaves me. I would answer the phone to hear a loud "ZANA"...oh how I miss you my dear bestest friend. On my birthday do me a favor and hook up with my dad...have a margarita on the beach for me will ya. I love ya kiddo and miss you like the dickens.

I am so happy that your family got together to "celebrate" you and David. I went to lunch with my parents and Charlie that day...I tried to talk about you but the tears wouldn't let me. I have posted alot of pictures of you on my FB page so everyone can see you. Alot of people didn't know about your death and have sent hugs to me. Today was another one of those days I would have ran to call you. We found out that our daughter Amanda is having a baby boy. I miss you! I love you! Zana*

“ I thought about Becky at Christmas, when I was addressing cards and saw her name in my Christmas card address book, remembering how we would send cards to each other. My (15 year old) son Tom stopped me this morning as I was getting ready for work in all the rush that it is. He was looking for something. I asked him what he was looking for, and he reminded me it was about one year since Becky has gone, and he was wondering about the date, thinking it was the year anniversary. I keep the memorial cards from some of the funerals I have been to, and he was looking for it. She was a really nice person, and I'm glad I got to meet her through my husband Joe (her cousin).

I wish you were here so you could get to know Branden, but im sure you are watching down on him. He still carries around the blankie you gave him. I think about you all the time and it makes my heart hurt that I will never see you again. We bought a house and now we are close to Matty, so that has been nice. I love and miss you! Love, Sara

“ To the Stawski (sroka) family - I am deeply sorry for your (our) loss of such a beautiful fun loving person. I grew up with her in high school and we did have some good times. She was always happy and had a smile on her face. Her favorite thing was laying out getting tan all day I used to get frustrated because she would always say only 15 more minutes and that would turn into 2 hrs. but that was Becky and the reason we were friends. I have not seen her since graduation but remember her like it was yesterday and she will be missed by everyone. Matt and Ashley please go to your friends, neighbors, John or anyone you need to if you want to talk or cry but always remember your mom and dad are and always will be with you.

“ Dear Dick, Bernie, Rick, Bob, Randy, Ray, Roger (wives), Ashley, Matty & John 38 years ago I walked across the street in my very new neighborhood to see if there might be a little girl there I could play with. From that day on "ZanaandBecky" or "Beckyand Zana" became one word. We did everything together. From preschool to motherhood we shared everything. The first time we shaved our legs was in the ice fishing house that was set up in the back yard. We used razors and baby lotion. (sorry Stawski Bros.) My mom and Bernie were not happy. Of course we lied and said we just had baby powder on our legs to make them shine. What sweet naughty girls we could be. (Becky usually thought up the ideas and I got in trouble for them...what a pair!) This has been a terrible week filled with sadness and tears. It would have been a time like this that Becky would have been the first one I called, to lean on, and for the first time in my life I have to face this on my own. There is no way to express how sorry I am for your whole family. Our Becky was one of a kind. My heart will forever carry a hole. Love ya sis!
