“ My deepest condolences to the family of this great man of all seasons, General Behailu Kinde. You are of a great loss to our nation of Ethiopia. You served your country with all your might and strength. you gave your entire self for the services of the mother land. You shall live in the heart of your nation for ever. Thank you for your service, sir! May our Lord rest your soul in peace eternally. I am very sad in a sense that you were buried in a foreign land.
