“ To The Anderson Family,

It saddens me to read about Benjamin passing. God is near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. (Psalm 34:18) More than anything else, a relationship with God can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. May he be with your family today and the months to come.

“ You were our 1.23 boy - always showing great appreciation for every little thing. I will miss calling you on your birthday (1.23) and seeing all the ways you loved and cherished your family. You are free now - and I hope you know how dearly loved you were, are, and always will be. "Peace out!"

“ I'll always remember that when I was freshman you were one of the upperclassmen that was nice to me and helped me get acclimated to Mounds View. Rest in peace friend.

“ My ❤️ goes to this family. Benjamin is a outstanding young man. I remember first meeting him for the first time when I used to work with his dad. I just fell in love with his wonderful children. Was excited to see them every time they stepped foot into the store. Benjamin was a shy boy at the time and each time warmed up more and more. The love he had for music and him sharing his story. Brought a huge smile on my face. I got to know his children like family. So glad I got to know him as a boy then grow into a handsome young boy. Benjamin you will be dearly missed. May your memories live in your family hearts. You will never be forgotten. Until we meet again. ❤️❤️❤️Victoria

“ *I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't know Ben well, but he was in a number of my classes and we chatted a couple of times. He has a very kind soul and you would be very proud of him. I enjoyed his company.
Sending my condolences.*
