“ Dear Mary and Ben's family~ I just heard today of the loss of Ben, and wanted to say how very sorry I am. I will always remember his laugh and his talents he had at Towers. He was the quickest maintenance guy we had at Kings Manor. And I loved hearing his Vegas stories, one of the places he seemed to love to go! God Bless you all.

“ I will never forget that you gave me your last name proudly before my own father ever thought of it. You are a great man and will always be loved and missed by myself and others who had the joy of knowing you. And for those who didn't have a chance to know you, will someday and very much enjoy it like everyone else.

“ Dear Amy & family: I am so very sorry for your loss, I knew Ben for quit a while - Amy and I were very close growing up and she would talk soo much about her dad and how great of a guy he was and when i met him for the first time i didnt doubt a word she said. I will always remember working for him down in St.Paul with you Amy when we were tearing down the walls in that apartment building. Also when we went to the VFW not to long ago when you were up here last. RIP Ben you will be a missed man for sure!!! Amy & Family STAY STRONG even through these hard times!

“ Our dear loving buddy Ben, I will miss you so much and your fabulous smile! Our group will not be the same without you and your crazy character and TT's! You will be missed by so many many people whose lives you have touched. Have fun listening to all that fabulous Heavenly music up there. You have been such a wonderful friend for over 22 years and will forever continue to be in my heart. Now you can rest Peacefully in God's loving arms and that is such a joy for us to all know! We will be also here for your loving wife Mary as she was here for you. Until we meet again. . .!Mary and family,May you be at Peace knowing that Ben is in Heaven, no longer suffering and now watching over us all. Praying that all the wonderful memories come to mind and bring a smile to your face when you think of Ben. Mary you married your soulmate as you know and Ben was blessed to have you there for him. Take care and know you have many friends here for you whenever you need us! God bless you!Love & hugs,Corrina
