“ *We extend our sympathy to Bennye's family. I have memories of when cousins Benney and Mary visited Minot N.D. in the early 60's. Spending time in our home and also Uncle Jerry and Aunt Patricia's home. My two older brothers were near in age with Benney and Mary and they 'hung out' together. I would hear them planning their evening and also listening and dancing the 'Bop' (remember that dance?) together. Of course Bennye's voice could always be heard above the others, she was very out going. I recall her white slacks had been soiled and she asked mother (Aunt Alice) if she could borrow something to wear that evening. And yes, she fit right into a pair of Mom's peddler pushers!!! Nothing held Bennye back from moving forward, ha! She was full of life. May she rest in peace with the Lord. I am sure her family will miss her deeply, we send prayers.
Peace, Rita (cousin) and Dave Hovde*

“ I am going to dearly miss my fiery redheaded sister! I moved from Minnesota in the late sixties and was in the military service from the early sixties so most of my fondest memories of Bennye were from our growing up years. Bennye was quite the tomboy in her youth. She was our childhood leader in swinging higher, jumping further, hitting harder and dodging faster than the rest of us siblings! She was always looking out for me as her oldest little brother. Once, when I had fallen and had twisted my ankle, she picked me up and ran to get help from Mom! She was in such a hurry that she slammed into the side door and put her arm thru the glass! I am sure she had scars from that incident all of her life. She was very popular especially in her last two years in high school. She was always ambitious and got a job waitressing in a fancy super club in her later high school years. I was stunned when I heard how much money she made in tips while working there. She was a little bit wild in her dating situations in her last two years of high school. I remember that some of the guys she dated drove hopped up cars or motorcycles which was considered to be very dangerous. Dad would shake his head when he heard loud tailpipes or the rumble of a motorcycle coming into the yard. A lot of street racing went on in those days! She and Dad had some real knock down, drag out arguments about her dating situations. Her first car was a 1955 Ford hard top. She was always on the go after that. I remember one funny little thing that would happen when we would get together with some of our relatives! The Duda family's father, Ernie, would call her his little foxy fox and would chase her around in fun! She would shriek and take off running! I could tell of many more exciting happenings in our younger years but I think by now you get the picture! Rest in peace dear sister! Love, your brother, Len!

“ I remember such fun times with you and Benny when you lived at the 4th street house. And once Benny and I were talking and talking on the phone and she said. I sure wish I was there with you Keri.. next thing you know she pulled up in front of my home in chisago Ina can and what a wonderful surprise! She taught me how to live in the moment and seize the day and let nothing get in your way. She had a wonderful. Witty sense of humour. And a loving heart for us all
