“ I remember staying with Bernie and Elden when my mom and Dad were in the hospital. She always made all the neighborhood kids feel like she was watching over them, because she was. Her and the other ladies on the Block would get together for coffee and desert to keep up with what all the others were doing. My Mom loved those afternoon times with her and the ladies. We had a great neighborhood to grow up in thanks to all the people who lived on Woodlawn drive in the 60's.
