

Bernice Wold

June 20, 2010

Wold, Bernice "Bee" April 5, 1921 - June 17, 2010 Bee was an artist, writer, craftsperson, hiker, adventurer and great lover of animals and nature, but most of all she was a natural mother and grandmother. She was born in Duluth and enjoyed living there as well as Denver (twice), Sioux Falls, Casper, Cedar Rapids, Golden Valley, Sioux City, Indianapolis and Robbinsdale. Everywhere she moved she made it her home and excitedly explored the area on foot and by car. Bee was married to Ernie for 34 years. After "Old Ern" died she lived independently for another 30 years. She was a beautiful mother to 6 children, Tom, Gary (Wendy), Jack (Nancy), Bonnie (Vince), Dianne (Tim), and Bobb (Theresa); she experienced the loss of a child when Tom died but will no doubt will be catching up with him and Ernie now. She was a spunky and beloved grandmother to Ana (Matt), Andrea (John), Brent (Mandy), Trent, Aaron, Alex, Garret, Kent, Grant, Brett, Blake, Nolan and a new one on the way. Bee was thrilled to know that she was going to be a great-grandmother to 2 babies this summer. Her family moves on and carries her with them, never forgetting her great wit and humor. She loved and accepted each of us as individuals and leaves behind fantastic memories. Wish well of Bee and know that she had a life well-lived. Private celebration of life.
