“ Susie, I am so sorry I can't be there for the service, I so wanted to. But I too am slowing down. I loved working with and knowing your mom. There was never a more giving and loving person than she. And you take after her. I am hoping that it will be videotaped and available to view. Sympathy to all of your wonderful family! ”

“ Beth had grit. She was one of the most dedicated athletes I've known. She ran with me and our good friend, Janet Johnson, for years in the early morning hours, every day of the week, for years. As we approached each other on many a dark morning, she would say a peppy "good morning" never complaining about being tired or how bad the weather was, she just put one foot in front of the other and started down the road. I don't think she would have ever stopped had cancer not come to her. I know in this last 2 years she put one foot in front of the other as she struggled with her health and I know she did it with her grit but I also know she did it with grace. She was a treasure and I feel lucky to have had those years with her. My deepest sympathies to all of you.
