“ To the Flynn Family,

There are no words anyone can say at this time to take away your sorrow. Please know your whole family is in the thought's and prayer's of many. You have a very special family and will need each other more than ever in the coming days.

Please keep your memories close to your heart. Your friends are here for you now as you have been with them so many time in the past.

I prayed to those who have gone before us to meet Bettie at the gates of heaven and to welcome her into eternal life and of course to reunite her with Roland and other family and friends that have passed on before us. You are all in my thought's and if I can help in any way, please let me know.

*With deepest symphythy,
Bob Schoberg*
