

Betty (Brown) Mather

March 3, 2011

Mather, Betty Lou (Brown) 85, 1925 - 2011. Formally of Austin, Coon Rapids and Longville, Minnesota, died, Sunday, February 27, 2011, surrounded by her family at home in Ramsey, Minnesota of natural causes. Betty was born November 26, 1925 in Greybull, Wyoming to Viva (Couding) and E. Aebischer (Biological Father) Betty grew up in Austin, Minnesota attending Austin High School, graduating in 1943 continuing through Kahler Hospital School of nursing in Rochester graduating in 1947 and serving as a supervisor in surgery at Colonial hospital in Rochester. It was always said that after accepting a phone call from Joe Mather while working a late shift as a nurse she agreed to a blind date as long as it would be a double date. They were married June 10, 1949 until Joe's death July 22, 2009. Betty returned to nursing in chemical Dependency at Mercy and Unity Hospitals 1979-1992 and retired in 1993 to Longville, MN/Leach Lake. She also enjoyed Crosswords, Fishing/Boating, Reading, her dogs and the Casino. Survived by children; Kristine Diemer (David), Brian Mather, Jennifer Edgerton (Jason); grandchildren, Michael, Angela (Theron), Taren, Cassandra, Samantha, Megan, Jay, Sarah (Justin), Joshua, Karly; great-grandchildren, Isabell, Sophia, Riley and Zachary. Preceded in death by siblings: James Anson Brown and Judy Ann Brown Uzlik Kearney and survived by siblings: Dixie Mytten (Elmer "Bud") and Jerry Bootenhoff (Jesse); sister-in-law Karen Brown and brother-in-law John Kearney many nieces and nephews. Friday, March 4, 2011, Visitation 9:30, Service 11:00, Washburn-McReavy Coon Rapids

Chapel, 1827 Coon Rapids Blvd. (763-767-1000). Pastor Jason Berry officiate. A special thank you to Allina Hospice group, and all of our family and friends for the support and love, shown in so many ways.