“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences of the passing of Betty. I first had the privilege of meeting Betty a few years ago at her great, great granddaughters birthday 1st Birthday Party. What an amazing woman she was. I could immediately she was a lady with a caring heart and positive personality. RIP Betty. You will never be forgotten and in all out hearts forever. God Bless all the family during this difficult time.

“ Betty was a great mother in law. Always treated me like a daughter and never interfered in my marriage to her stepson. I remember at my son’s wedding, we were talking outside the hall and I kept asking her if she was getting tired. She kept saying no she was fine. She just liked being with her family and listening to all the conversations. She will be missed by the whole family. Betty say hi to Doug and dad. Love Kathy Wolf
