“ I am so sorry I missed Betty's visitation. I learned of her passing too late. I also worked for Bloomington School's and a fun memory I had of Betty was this. We often had coffee together and started talking of the White Castle restaurant. Betty had never been there ,so her and I and 2 others that had never eaten there went for lunch today. We had a good laugh about "gut bombs" as they were called then. She was a delight and a real lady. I know you have good memories of her.
