

Betty J Meyer

January 11, 2015

Meyer, Betty J. 87 of Minneapolis passed away January 11, 2015. She was born in Lewistown, Montana to Bertin and Thea Brurs. Betty grew up in South Minneapolis helping her mother wait on customers in their corner grocery store. She graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1946. Married to Fred Meyer for 23 years, they had four children. The youngest was born while they were living in London, England for three years. Betty had a variety of jobs prior to retirement but most enjoyed working for Campbell Interiors and caring for her grandchildren. She lived life courageously and always took the positive approach. After weathering upheaval in mid-life, she developed a strong, independent voice which made her children proud. She modeled compassion, inclusiveness and understanding in everything she did. She was devoted to her family and had many lifelong friends. Highly intuitive, she was beloved by all for her kind, loving, and generous nature. Betty was preceded in death by her older sisters, Thea Williams, Sylva Williams, Margaret Gustafson, and Lorraine Shotwell. She is survived by children, Pam (Dwight) Jewson, Kim (Cliff) Greene, Ned Meyer (Jane), and Kean (Patti) Meyer; grandchildren, Cara (Ben), Jacob (Sarah), Ian (Kristina), David, Eric, Caitlin (Andy), Zack, Lizzie, Kate, Samantha, and Hunter; great-grandchildren, Eliana, Tyler, Micah, and Cameron. A memorial service will be held Sat., Feb. 7, 2015 2 PM at Lakewood Chapel, 3600 Hennepin Ave. S., Minneapolis, with visitation 1:30PM. Burial Lakewood Cemetery.
