

Mrs. Betty Jean Sallman

September 4, 1931 - September 27, 2018

Sallman, Betty J. (nee Rosell) Age 87 of Shoreview, and formerly of North Oaks and St. Anthony Village passed away September 27, 2018. Preceded in death by her parents, Herb and Hazel Rosell. Survived by husband, Bob; daughters, Jennifer Patton (James), Karen Blackey (Brent), and Mary Cook (Mike); grandchildren, Jonathan (Whitney) & Michael Patton, Erika, Adam and Jenny Blackey, and Drew and Alyssa Cook; and great-grandson Barrett Patton. Betty graduated from Edison High School in June 1949 where she first dated her future husband Bob. After high school she attended the University of Minnesota to pursue her passion to become a teacher. She was active in a number of campus organizations including Alpha Chi Omega Sorority where she formed lifelong special friendships. She graduated from the College of Education in June of 1953. She began her career teaching third grade students at Silverlake School in Columbia Heights. Betty and Bob were married on December 17, 1954 at Hennepin Avenue United Methodist Church and remained active members all their lives. Betty continued to teach while Bob returned to the University of Minnesota to complete his degree after serving in the Korean War. After he graduated they started their family and she became a full time mom. Betty became an active volunteer but her family remained her number one priority. She graciously gave her time and energy to help others, including teaching Sunday school (for over 20 years), leading Campfire Girls troops, volunteering at the League of Women Voters and playing a variety of roles in support of her favorite charitable organization, the North Oaks Children's Hospital Guild 1. Betty lived a very full and rewarding life and touched many people with her positive outlook. She was loved by many and will be dearly missed. “ So sorry to hear of Betty's passing. John will attend the service but due to health issues I, Barb, will not be able to attend. Although unable to be there in person will be there in spirit. Sending many prayers for one and all. Betty was such a special person..Beautiful inside and out.. have many fond memories of both Betty and Bob and the girls too.. Such positive loving people. God Bless, Love John and Barb Lehman
